TELOS is now offering classes at a new location!

TELOS - A Swift Survey of Greek History and Mythology

Examine the development of classical Greece, the true foundation of Western Civilization. From the beginnings of matriarchal Crete to the hero-worshipping Mycenaean warriors, we will lay the groundwork for the Greek city-states. We will explore the glories of Athens, from the birth of direct democracy in the Agora to the magnificent art of the Acropolis. This class will culminate with the beginnings of philosophy which set the standards for the classical world. Fee: $79

Item #8051 8 Sessions M Jan 9 –Mar 13, 2017 12:00 - 1:30PM K. Busch
No Class on Jan 16, Feb 20.

TELOS - Astrobiology: Looking for Life in the Universe

Astrobiology is a new science that seeks to answer an old question: Are we alone in the cosmos? There are those at NASA and elsewhere who believe we are on the verge of discovering evidence of life on other worlds. This class will be a travelogue style overview of the science of discovering life and of the worlds in our Solar System and elsewhere in the galaxy that may house these new discoveries. Fee: $79

Item W8050 8 Sessions M Jan 9 –Mar 13, 2017 10:00 - 11:30AM R. Hobbs
No Class on Jan 16, Feb 20.

TELOS - Post-election Stock-taking

We have just been through a bruising election year. Distrust, dissatisfaction, and disaffection were writ large – mostly in slogans, slurs, and sound bites. Now it is important to take stock by looking at our social problems and our resources for addressing them. To do this, we will draw on The Unwinding: An Inner History of the New America, which presents vignettes of a cross-section of Americans. Please borrow or buy this book. Fee: $79

Item W8049 8 Sessions Th Jan 5 - Mar 2, 2017 10:00 - 11:30AM E. Berg
No Class on Feb 9.
