

Wolves

in Washington State

A new exhibit at Lewis Creek Visitor Center! Wolves in Washington State, introduces the unique history of wolves in our state, from their importance to Pacific Northwest Native American culture to the state's new wolf management plan. A complex story, the exhibit examines wolf ecology and management issues as well as highlights the critical role wolves play in promoting a healthy ecosystem.

When: April 28 - July 8, 2012

Where: Lewis Creek Visitor Center

5808 Lakemont Blvd SE, Bellevue

Cost: Free!

Wolves in Washington State was organized by the Burke Museum, University of Washington, in consultation with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife. Sponsorship of this local presentation of Wolves in Washington State is provided by the City of Bellevue Parks Department.

