Re: Reappointment to the Bellevue Parks and Community Services Board

Dear Ms. Grindeland:

Congratulations on your reappointment to the Bellevue Parks and Community Services Board. At their April 15, 2013 meeting, City Council confirmed your second four-year term on the Board.

Important work lays ahead for the Board and your experience and dedication will play an integral part of accomplishing that work. The Council appreciates your willingness to serve and is thankful for citizens such as yourself who share their talents, skills and commitment to Bellevue's quality of life.

Good luck on furthering Bellevue's journey to a better tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Re: Reappointment to the Bellevue Parks and Community Services Board

Dear Mr. Heath:

Congratulations on your reappointment to the Bellevue Parks and Community Services Board. At their April 15, 2013 meeting, City Council confirmed your first full four-year term on the Board. Your original appointment in 2012 completed an unexpired term of less than two years and makes you eligible to be considered for an additional term in 2017.

Important work lays ahead for the Board and your experience and dedication will play an integral part of accomplishing that work. The Council appreciates your willingness to serve and is thankful for citizens such as yourself who share their talents, skills and commitment to Bellevue's quality of life.

Good luck on furthering Bellevue's journey to a better tomorrow.

Sincerely,
