

Tam O'Shanter Park Trail

Tam O'Shanter is a 15-acre park located in northeast Bellevue. The predominately upland forest consists of Douglas fir and big leaf maple in the over story, and Indian plum, elderberry, sword fern, and salal in the under story. The trails were upgraded in 1991, with the north loop designed to connect with Redmond's Viewpoint Park trail.

To:
NE 24th St

Redmond's
Viewpoint Park

-  Trail Access
-  Parking
-  Play Areas
-  Other Parks Trails
-  Tam O'Shanter Trail System
-  Bellevue Parks
-  Other Parks

To reach the Trailhead:
Park at the Tam O'Shanter mini-park
trailhead located at 1655 173rd Ave NE

