2006 Annual Report

Providing a safe environment through community involvement and innovation

CHIEF MONTGOMERY

Chief Jim Montgomery

Dear Bellevue Residents:

2007 marks a time for much celebration for the City of Bellevue. Just over a year ago, our new City Hall opened. This significant investment gave its Police Department, for the first time in many years, a central location from which to operate and serve. I think I speak for everyone when I say we're very pleased with the outcome. This investment by the citizens of Bellevue is truly appreciated.

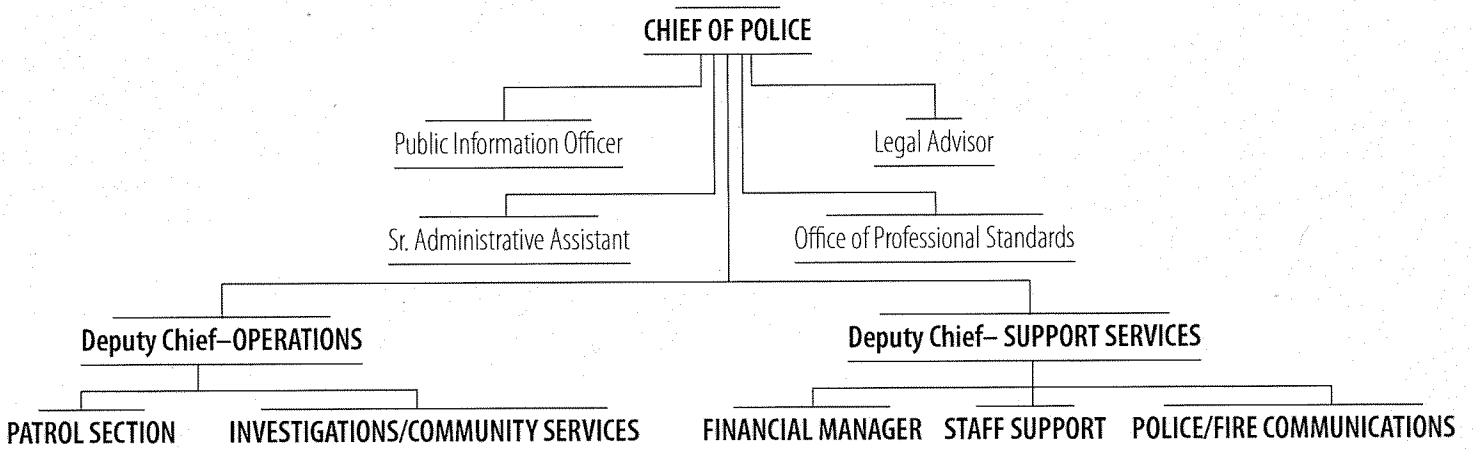

Another reason to celebrate is that for more than two decades, Bellevue has experienced an overall decline in reported Part One crime-(homicide, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny, M/V theft, and arson). This fact is even more impressive since we have less Part One crime reported today than when our population was less than 73,000. Much credit goes to you, the citizens of Bellevue, who have embraced our commitment to a community-based policing approach. In addition, a lot of credit is also deserved by the men and women of the Police Department who have tirelessly worked to reduce crime and ensure our City is a safe place to live, work, and recreate.

Managing the fifth largest police department in the State of Washington with a budget of nearly $36 million and a staff of 271 can be challenging. Fortunately, we are blessed with a wonderful staff of highly educated and experienced people, dedicated to providing exceptional service.

I recently decided to retire after serving this profession for nearly forty-three years. I cannot think of a better place to complete my service than with a department composed of such high quality people. I hope I've achieved my goal of leaving this department a better place than when I arrived. I would like to thank all the staff past and present for their dedication to the high principles that make us one of the premier departments in the country.

Jim Montgomery
Chief of Police

Office of the Chief of Police

The Police Department Legal Advisor, Public Information Officer and Office of Professional Standards report directly to Chief Montgomery. The Legal Advisor provides legal and policy advice and counsel for the Bellevue Police Department.

The Public Information Officer keeps the Police Department website current, sends out press releases, responds to all incidents of public interest where the Police are the primary responders, and serves on a variety of committees. The Office of Professional Standards is responsible for ensuring the Police Department continues to meet the international standards for law enforcement accreditation and tracks and oversees investigations of citizen and employee complaints. One Captain and one Lieutenant are assigned to this office.

Operations

Deputy Chief Linda Pillo

The Operations Division consists of Patrol, Traffic, K-9, Courts/Custody, Special Enforcement Team, Investigations, Community Services, Eastside Narcotics Task Force, Volunteer program and the Forensic lab.

Support Services

Deputy Chief Dave Gans

The Support Services Division consists of Communications, Personnel Services, Records, Property/Evidence and the Financial Manager.

PATROL SECTION

Major Bruce Vestal

PATROL IS THE LARGEST SECTION IN THE BELLEVUE POLICE DEPARTMENT consisting of 114 commissioned officers and 5 limited commissioned staff. The section is headed by a Major and divided into units with Patrol and Traffic being the largest units. Additional units include: Courts and Custody, Canine and the Special Enforcement Team. Specialty assignments in Patrol include: Explosives, Evidence Technician, Field Training Officer, Holiday Foot Patrol, Honor Guard, Hostage Negotiations, Crowd Control and Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT).

Officers Bryan Reil and Rachel Neff

Lt. Christopher McOmber

The largest unit in Patrol has three Watch Commanders ( Captains ) who supervise eight (8) Squads that provide 24-hour coverage by uniformed officers. This unit is designed to maximize public safety by providing timely response to calls for assistance and an active, visible patrol in the city.

The Courts and Custody Unit is supervised by a Lieutenant who manages prisoners who are either being transported to court appearances or serving sentences. The Court Liaison Officer tracks all cases referred for filing and conducts follow-up as needed. The Police Support Officers conduct prisoner processing and transport.

The Canine Unit is supervised by a Lieutenant and has three handlers and dogs. This unit is responsible for visible patrol, response to all in progress calls, tracking of fleeing suspects, building searches and evidence location.

The Special Enforcement Team is supervised by a Lieutenant with four officers and one detective assigned. This unit focuses on specific crime trends and responds in a proactive manner. Their primary responsibility is to target car crimes and work closely with the King County Prosecutors Office to attack this regional issue. We believe this unit helped last year's 16% reduction in auto thefts.

The Traffic Unit is supervised by one Captain and three Lieutenants and is broken into two areas: collision investigation and enforcement. Educating the public about traffic laws, working closely with traffic engineering, active and appropriate enforcement and conducting high quality collision investigations are integral reasons why this unit is so successful in keeping our streets safe.

Officers Jamie Collins, Danny Young, and Curt McIvor

Officer Sarah Finkel

INVESTIGATIONS/COMMUNITY SERVICES

WITH A STAFF OF 50, this section is comprised of several units and one program: Persons Crimes, Property Crimes, Fraud, School Services, Neighborhood Services, Eastside Narcotics Task Force, Forensics, Crime Analysis and the Volunteer Program.

Major Bill Quinn

School Resource Officer Mike Fry

Officer Tory Mangione

Investigations is supervised by three lieutenants and is comprised of 17 detectives, one civilian D/V victim advocate, one special assignment detective, one crime analysis detective and two crime prevention detectives. Investigations is responsible for conducting complicated investigations relating to violent, property and fraud crimes. The two crime prevention detectives work closely with the business and residential community to educate on ways to reduce the chance of victimization.

Community Services is supervised by two lieutenants and is comprised of seven school resource officers (SRO), three bicycle officers, three sub-station officers and one station officer. There is a SRO in every high school and two assigned to the middle schools. The bicycle officers conduct safety talks and work closely with Patrol proactively combating crime. The sub-station officers manage the Crossroads, Factoria and Downtown Sub-stations. The station officer is assigned to the front counter of the Police Department.

Eastside Narcotic Task Force comprises Detectives from of five local police agencies: Bellevue, Mercer Island, King County, Redmond and Kirkland. It is supported by a member of the National Guard, a King County prosecutor, a financial investigator and an administrative assistant. The Bellevue Police provide a Captain and Lieutenant who manage the Task Force and report to the Chiefs of the member agencies.

Forensics has two staff members who conduct fingerprint and evidence collection and processing.

Crime Analysis has one full-time detective and one part-time staff member. This unit collects, analyzes and disperses relevant crime information along with monitoring registered sex offenders in our city.

The Volunteer Program just completed its 12th year recruiting qualified citizens and carefully matching them to appropriate assignments throughout the police department. In 2006, Police Department volunteers contributed nearly 7800 hours of service to the City of Bellevue.

Forensic Technician Shawn Curtis and Forensic Service Manager Carl Nicoll

Detective Bob Thompson and Detective Ellen Inman

POLICE/FIRE COMMUNICATIONS

*Communications
Manager
Alan Komenski*

OUR DISPATCH CENTER IS SUPERVISED by one Communications Manager, one Assistant Manager, six Supervisors and six Leads. With 35 dispatch positions, one geo-file technician and one public safety applications analyst, this Eastside Communications center serves an area of approximately 1400 square miles, two Police agencies, 14 Fire/EMS agencies, and a regional population of over 650,000.

In 2006, Dispatch handled an average of 546 emergency calls per day and an average of 14,411 emergency calls per month. Although the overall number of calls increased by 1,567, it is important to note calls from cellular phones increased by 68%. Cell phone calls are more difficult to dispatch because the caller's address does not come up on the dispatch screen as it would if they were to use their wired phone line.

Dispatcher of the year, Julie Buckingham
