

GUIDELINES FOR UTILITY TAX RELIEF

NOTE: If you qualified for the 2020 Utility Rate Relief Program earlier this year, you do not need to complete this application.

The purpose of this program is to provide utility occupation tax relief to low-income households within the Bellevue service area. The tax relief will come in the form of a rebate check from utility occupation taxes paid to the City. A check will be mailed to all qualified applicants who apply for the program in a complete and timely manner.

APPLICATION PERIOD

Applications for the 2020 Tax Relief Program will be accepted October 1st through November 13th, 2020. The deadline for applying is Friday, November 13th, 2020, at 4 p.m., PST. Completed applications and copies of all required documentation must be received at Downtown Bellevue City Hall before the deadline to be considered. Late or incomplete applications cannot be processed. It can take several weeks to process an application. Applicants are encouraged to get their applications in as early as possible to ensure timely processing.

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible, you must have lived inside the Bellevue service area for at least one calendar month in 2020, have contributed to the payment of city utility services, and qualify as low-income. To be considered low-income, your total annual combined household income* for 2019 must not have exceeded the limits shown below.

Household Size in 2019	Total Household Income* for 2019
1 person	$38,750
2 persons	$44,300
3 persons	$49,850
4 persons	$55,350
5 persons	$59,800
6 persons	$64,250

* Income means "disposable income," as that term is defined in RCW 84.36.383, plus all disability compensation and any and all gifts. Total household income includes income for everyone living in your household during 2019. Examples of income and required documentation are described in the "Required Documentation" section that follows.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION – PLEASE READ BEFORE SIGNING

I, the undersigned, under penalty of perjury of the laws of the state of Washington do hereby declare and certify:

- That I have read and understood all of the 2020 Utility Tax Relief Program Guidelines for Tax Rebate (10/1/2020) provided with this application, and that all of the information provided by me on this application is accurate, complete, and true to the best of my knowledge.
- That I understand that submitting the required documentation does not guarantee eligibility to the program. Such information will, however, be used to determine if I qualify for benefits under the program.
- That I understand that the income documents I provided will be used by the City to create an income worksheet that will be used to determine income qualification.
- That I have read the definition of “disposable income” for the program and to the best of my knowledge, I and my household are eligible for the program.
- That I have provided a true and accurate list of “disposable income” to the City for 2019.
- That I understand the tax rebate is for 2020 only and it is my responsibility to re-apply for this or any other rate relief program during application periods for those programs.
- That I understand that any attempt to falsify my information will result in my disqualification from the program for this year and may subject me to further civil or criminal penalties.
- That I understand the City reserves the right to audit my records to determine my eligibility for the program.
- That I understand that if I receive the tax rebate and do not disclose all sources of disposable income for household members for 2019, the City may recover the actual cost of my tax rebate for the period that I was not eligible.
