

PUBLIC LISTENING SESSIONS

You are invited to take part in assessing Bellevue’s use of force policies

Three upcoming listening sessions will collect input from community members on Bellevue’s police use of force policies in response to the national conversation about race and social justice.

Listening forums & how to participate

We encourage all residents and stakeholders of Bellevue to join one of the listening forums or submit email comments. Interested community members can register to attend here:

Go to bellevue-listening-forums.eventbrite.com

Click on “Select A Date” button to reserve your preferred time of choice:

- ▶ Tuesday, October 13, 5:30-7 p.m.
- ▶ Thursday, October 15, 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.
- ▶ Saturday, October 17, 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.

If you are unable to attend any of the forums you can participate in the community engagement via EngagingBellevue.com or provide comments to council-pledge@bellevuewa.gov

For additional information, visit BellevueWA.gov/council-pledge or EngagingBellevue.com

These listening sessions are part of the community engagement process to review Bellevue’s police use of force policies. A City Council pledge signed in June includes the following actions through a third-party review group:

Review – police use of force policies.

Report – the findings of the review to the community and seek feedback.

Engage – the community by including a diverse range of input, experiences and stories in the review.

Reform – police use of force policies.

For alternate formats, interpreters, or reasonable accommodation requests please phone at least 48 hours in advance 425-452-7886 (voice) or email ygarciab@bellevuewa.gov.
