

SUMMER PROGRAMS, DAY CAMPS, AND RENTALS

City of Bellevue Parks & Community Services has made the difficult decision to delay the start of our summer day camps until July 27. In addition, we are canceling camps we are unable to redesign to meet health and safety guidelines. Some camps at Kelsey Creek Farm and Robinswood have been redesigned so please note how they are restructured.

If you are registered in the following you will receive a full refund

- All classes and rentals through the end of July
- * Any day camps through July 24

Camps/ programs that are offered through the end of August at Kelsey Creek Farm or Robinswood that are being cancelled or redesigned. If you are registered and are in any category listed below you will receive a refund.

- Kelsey Creek Farm Day Camps 4-6 year olds
- Go Go Van Gogh Art Camps
- Pony Camps
- Summer Private Riding Lessons
- Any participant that is under 6-year-old in Robinswood Day Camp
- Any participant that is under 6-year-old in Little Farmers
- Any Crazy Kitchen, Kitchen Basics or the Great Baking Camp will be restructured so that participants must be at least 7-year-old. Anyone registered now under that age will receive a refund.

Refund information:

Customers will receive a separate cancellation notification and a full refund of their registration fee. If your payment was received more than 120 days ago, payment information is no longer stored by our credit card processor so staff will contact you to complete your refund. In these cases, this will require you to provide your credit card number to our customer service representatives when they call you.

