

Farm Adventurers: Camp & Volunteer Hybrid

Spend a week exploring the world of farming! Activities will include lots of animal interactions, agricultural education, and actual work experience for which your child will receive an official volunteer certificate. Participants will learn to work with sheep, goats, cows, chickens, ducks, rabbits, and ponies. They will create crafts with material from the farm, learn about the history of Seattle-area agriculture, and learn what it takes to clean a barn.

Farm Discoveries

Join us at this hands-on adventure as you explore the Kelsey Creek Farm. Children actively participate in animal care, making animal treats, working on barnyard chores, and learning fun facts about the farm. Time to play, arts and crafts, and circle time helps children develop important social skills. This special half-day camp will have your child loving our chickens, goats, cows, pigs, and rabbits. A pony ride will be included.
