

Disaster Resilience Network

Bellevue's Office of Emergency Management

Day One Agenda

Emergency Preparedness Overview

Establishing Your Community

Workgroups and Roles

Getting to Know your Network

Building Your Network

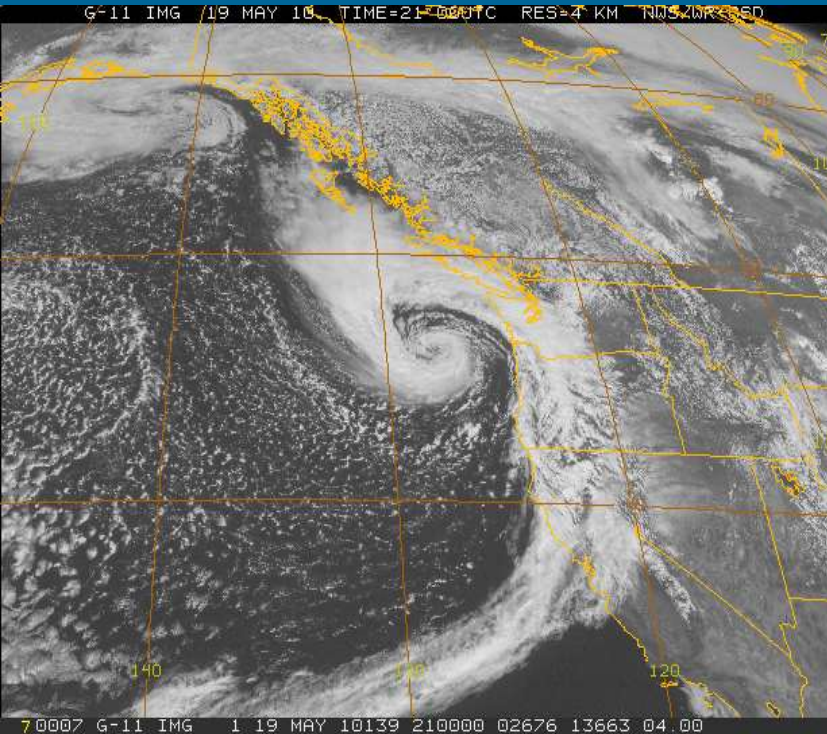

Sharing Your Network

Emergency Preparedness Overview

Bellevue's Most Common Disasters

Severe Weather

Power Outages

Structural Fires

Personal Preparedness

- Communication Plan
- Action Plan
- Emergency Kit

Establishing Your Community

- How do you define your community?
- What are its key characteristics?

Establishing Your Roles

- Pick a Community Coordinator
 - Encourages community engagement
 - Facilitate community recovery
 - Primary network contact
- Work Groups
 - Based on block, floor, or building number

Introductions

Share with your group mates

- Your Name
- Where you live
- Contact information

Work Group Roles

- Work Group Representative
 - Primary work group contact
 - Facilitate work group meetings
- Note Taker
 - Take notes during network meetings

Build Your Network

- Essential skills
 - Ex. First Aid, CPR, Survival Skills.....
- Essential supplies
 - Ex. Rope, Camping Supplies, Jumper Cables.....

Sharing Your Network

- What is one thing you learned from the discussion?
- What strengths does your network have?
- Does your network have any key resources?

Thank You For Participating!

Disaster Resilience Network

Bellevue's Office of Emergency Management

Day Two Agenda

Refresher

Building Your Preparedness Plan

Sharing you Plans

Scenario Game

Future Considerations

Network Refresher

Catch up and review the
Day One Worksheet

Build Your Plan

- Communication Plan
 - How will you communicate?
- Care Plan
 - Who needs assistance?
- Reunification Plan
 - Where will you reunite after a disaster?

Share Your Plan

- Does your plan have any major strengths?
 - Innovative communication methods?
 - Exceptional community care skills?

HEATWAVE

- Day One
 - NWS Extreme Heat Warning
- Day Seven
 - High of 110 degrees Fahrenheit
 - I-5, I-90, I-405 impacted
 - Intermittent power outages

HEATWAVE

- Draw a card
- Discuss with your group
 - Do you need immediate assistance?
 - What resources do you have at your disposal?
 - What can you do to support your community?

Share Your Scenario Outcome

- What are some strengths you noticed during the scenario exercise?
- What are some improvements that could be made to your network?

Thank You For Participating!

