THEATRE ON THE GREEN

Wednesday 6:30 p.m. Performances
August 6 • Romeo and Juliet

This story follows two young, besotted lovers as they struggle to be together in spite of a blood feud between their two families. The play is abridged, so approximately 1 hour in length and features dueling, dancing, and spritely dialogue.

August 13 • Aesop's Fables

This musical mash-up features six familiar fables created by the famous Greek storyteller, Aesop. These include The Lion and the Mouse; The Sun, The North Wind, and the Man; The Fox and the Goat; and the Crows and the Pitcher as told by a group of four, fanciful animals. The play is fun for the whole family. Length of performance is approximately 45-50 minutes.
