Class Schedule at a Glance

Bellevue Parks Northwest Arts Center and Kirkland Arts Center have teamed up to offer afterschool arts programs. Bellevue School District will provide busing to Northwest Arts Center for Clyde Hill Elementary students who are attending the 2018-2019 school year at Bellewood Elementary School. City staff will meet children at bus stop at the Northwest Arts Center to greet students and get them to their afterschool art program.

Please note: No classes held on 5/27.

Monday ~ 4-6 pm

Play with Clay

In this afterschool class, kids can explore the exciting world of clay. Using the basic techniques of "pinching," "coiling," and "rolling." Kids can transform a lump of clay into bowls, cups, vases, tiles, animals, and anything that their creative young minds can imagine. They will also learn to decorate their ceramic creations using colorful glazes. These classes provide an opportunity for kids to have fun, while learning and experiencing the entire process of creating with clay. Offered by Kirkland Arts Center at the Northwest Arts Center.
